POLICY STATEMENT

St Paul's assumes responsibility for the welfare of the students who have been issued with a visa to enter our Schools so we reserve the right to approve accommodation arrangements. Students not living with their parents or nominated relative must be in a registered St Paul's School Homestay as per Public Interest Criterion 4012A and Visa Condition 8532, which govern care arrangements for student visa applicants/holders who have not turned 18 years.

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

1. We/I acknowledge that if this enrolment is accepted our/my son/daughter will abide by the rules and requirements of the School including compliance with the School's requirement for homestay accommodation.
2. We/I undertake that every effort will be made to ensure that our/my son/daughter will not be absent from School without leave of absence being granted by the School and that the term dates, as advertised by the School, will be strictly adhered to. (Students absent from School without being granted leave may forfeit any credit for assessments missed during their absence may place their visa in jeopardy.)
3. We/I undertake to give one full school term's notice before the removal of our/my son/daughter or to pay one term's fees in lieu. In order to be valid and binding such notice must be in writing and signed by us/me and delivered to the Headmaster.

REFUND POLICY

Student default because of visa refusal

If a student produces evidence of visa refusal (or provides permission for the School to verify visa refusal with the Department of Immigration and fails to start a course in, or withdraws from a course on or before the agreed starting date. The School will refund within four weeks of receiving a written claim from the student the total amount of course fees received by the School before the student's default day. If a student whose visa has been refused withdraws from the course after it has commenced, the school will retain the amount of tuition fees proportionate to the amount of the course the student has undertaken and will refund any unused tuition fees received by the School with respect to the student within the period of four weeks after the day of student default. *Calculation of the refund due in this case is prescribed by a legislative instrument (s.10 of Education Services for Overseas Students (Calculation of Refund) Specification 2014).

Student default (ESOS Act 2000 s47)

Any amount owing under this section will be paid within 4 weeks of receiving a written claim from the student (or parent(s)/legal guardian if the student is under 18).

Non-tuition fees: Non-tuition fees will be refunded on a pro rata basis proportional to the amount of time the student was studying in the course, except where a non-refundable payment on behalf of the student has been made.

Non-commencement with no notification of withdrawal: If the student does not provide written notice of withdrawal, and does not start the course on the agreed starting date, one terms tuition fees (50% of 1 study period) will be retained from tuition fees received by the school.

Non-Commencement with notification of withdrawal: If written notification of withdrawal by the student (or parent(s)/legal guardian if the student is under 18) is received 4 or more weeks prior to commencement, the school will refund all fees received less any non-refundable payments.

Refunds after commencement of a course: The student (or parent(s)/legal guardian if the student is under 18) must notify the school of withdrawal one full term before departure. If no notification is received, 1 terms fees will be charged in lieu of notice.

Refunds in the event of a provider initiated cancellation of enrolment: Unless otherwise approved by the Headmaster no refund of tuition fees will be made where a student's enrolment is cancelled for any of the following reasons:

- Failure to maintain satisfactory course progress (visa condition 8202).
- Failure to maintain satisfactory attendance (visa condition 8202).
- Failure to maintain approved welfare and accommodation arrangements (visa condition 8532).
- Failure to pay course fees.
- Any behaviour identified as resulting in enrolment cancellation in the School's Behaviour Policy/Code of Conduct.

Provider Default (ESOS Act 2000 s46)

If for any reason the school is unable to offer a course on an agreed starting day for the course, and the student for some reason cannot be placed or refuses placement in an alternative course arranged by the school, a full refund of any unused tuition fees* received by the school with respect to the student will be made within 14 days of the agreed course starting day.

If for any reason the school is unable to continue offering a course after the student commences a course, and the student for some reason cannot be placed or refuses placement in an alternative course arranged by the school, a full refund of any unused tuition fees* received by the school with respect to the student will be made within 14 days of the school's default day.

In the event that the school is unable to fulfil its obligations of providing an agreeable alternative course for the student, or a refund, the student will receive assistance from the Australian government's Tuition Protection Service. For information on the TPS, please see: <https://tps.gov.au/StaticContent/Get/StudentInformation>. *Calculation of the refund due in this case is prescribed by a legislative instrument (s.7 of Education Services for Overseas Students (Calculation of Refund) Specification 2014). <http://www.comlaw.gov.au/Details/F2014L00907>

This agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the right of the student to take action under Australia's Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

If student changes visa status (eg becomes a temporary or permanent resident) they will be required to provide a copy of their Notification of Residency or Long Stay Visa Grant. Domestic fees will be applied from the next Semester.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION – see Prospectus for full Grievance Policy details Students should also be aware:

1. St Paul's School has a complaints and appeals process which complies with Commonwealth and State Requirements. Please refer to the International School prospectus and the St Paul's School website for full details.
2. All complaints must be made in writing.

INDEMNITY/DECLARATION

Parent(s)/legal guardians must read and sign this written agreement.

We/I hereby give permission for my son/daughter to take part in all activities associated with them attending St Paul's School. We/I agree to delegate our/my authority to the Headmaster. We/I agree that such person may take whatever reasonable disciplinary action which is deemed necessary in ensuring the safety, well-being and successful conduct of the students of the School as a group or individually. I authorise the Headmaster or his delegates (guardians, servants, agents or Homestay parents) to obtain all such medical assistance as required and to make all such decisions as they deem necessary to preserve the health and well-being of the student.

We/I agree to the School opening a Learning Unique Identifier registration with the Queensland Curriculum Assessment Authority on the student's behalf, where the student is undertaking a Senior High School program.

We/I also agree to the School accessing visa information pertaining to the student for the duration of their course of study either through Department of Immigration or the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) system.

I understand that if my son/daughter does not comply with the requirements of the School the enrolment may be cancelled and I confirm I have received information from the School about:

- The course in which my child is to be enrolled
- Conditions of enrolment in the Course
- All course monies and other course-related fees
- The sharing of personal information
- Change of address obligations

I have read and understood the St Paul's School International Student Policy Handbook located on the School website. I hereby declare that the information supplied by me is true and correct. I agree to pay all fees owing and by the due date. I have read, understood and agree to be bound by the above conditions of enrolment.
