CHOOSE LOVE

As you know, the purpose of St Paul's School is to produce – "Resilient global citizens who are innovative thinkers with a heart for servant leadership". Consequently, we are actively engaging in discussions about how best to build resilience in our students.

I recently read the story of the "Survivor Tree" (shown above) - In October 2001, the tree was discovered at Ground Zero severely damaged, with snapped roots and burned and broken branches. The tree was removed from the rubble and placed in the care of the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation. After its recovery and rehabilitation, the tree was returned to the Memorial in 2010. New, smooth limbs extended from the gnarled stumps, creating a visible demarcation between the tree's past and present. Today, the tree stands as a living reminder of resilience, survival and rebirth.

While our life circumstances may never compare with that fateful day in 2001, I am sure that sometimes we can feel just as shattered as the poor ornamental pear tree. Bereavement, retrenchment, divorce, an unexpected health or financial crisis - all of these things may hit us, out of the blue, leaving us feeling hurt, frightened, confused and alone.

I also read this reflection by Diedra Riggs – "Surviving is hard, dying is hard, losing someone you love is almost unbearable, being angry enough to harm someone else is such a heavy sadness, war can't be the answer, hate will kill us all. And so … it seems the best answer to the brokenness we each face in this world remains the same: Choose love."

I think there is great wisdom in that conclusion. Essentially, we are social creatures: we need each other – in families and in community. All the time, but especially in times of crisis, we need to know that we are loved and accepted. There will be times when we will all need the care and support of our "tribe", just as the Survivor Tree needed intensive care in the months following September 2001, in order to survive. I celebrate the resilience of the Survivor Tree, but I also salute the arborists of the NYC Department of Parks and Recreation, who cared for the shattered tree and nursed it back to life.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF FAITH & COMMUNITY

Sometimes, no matter how resilient we (or our students) are, we also need those around us who can love us back to life. I trust that the coming holiday break will be a time when all of our students, staff members and families experience a time of rest and recreation.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING UPDATE

The Service Learning Committee have been very busy this term and the last week has seen the committee complete one project, The Bald Hills Turrwan Reading program, and begin a second initiative relating to our visiting overseas sister schools.

The Turrwan Indigenous Reading program culminated in an afternoon tea shared between our St Paul's student mentors and their Bald Hills reading buddies. The end of program celebration was a delightful way to wind up what has been an outstanding project. Our St Paul's students received a certificate in recognition of their commitment to the program which has carried across both term 2 and 3 and seen them working with their buddies each Tuesday after school. Our students then presented their buddies with a range of reading texts to place in the Bald Hills SS library for use in the program next year. The books were funded through the Book Week Costume Parade which Mrs Bolton co-ordinated earlier in the term here at St Paul's. This was a tremendous plus for Bald Hills and the Indigenous reading program and is a wonderful example of bringing St Paul's school events together to achieve great outcomes.

Kanto International students returned to Japan last week having been farewelled with a barbeque lunch cooked and catered for by the Service Learning team. The lunch was a great way to say thanks and goodbye to our visiting friends from Tokyo and the event saw our students sharing their meal as well as lovely conversation and just a few interesting dance moves courtesy of the Service learning team's resident dance troupe led by Taylor Trost. The event is the first in what will become regular celebrations aimed at bringing our local students closer to our International visitors.

Nude Food Fridays continue on a fortnightly basis throughout the final term of the year, as does the sale of reusable coffee cups through the retail shop. Both these projects are Service Learning initiatives and both aim to bring the amount of waste St Paul's, as a community, generates and improve our positive stewardship of the environment in which our community is placed. All students are encouraged to get involved with these initiatives. So, buy your reusable coffee cup and bring lunches that do not use any single use plastic bags or wrappers.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR A QUICK START TOO!

Some ideas are grand; solving serious problems, helping millions of people live better lives, or deliver a fix to a lifelong issue. The solutions to these often need chipping away, multiple prototypes, customer testing, and a gradual release to market. That is OK and it is wonderful to dream big and think of where your idea could take you. The Kickstart Loan process allows students to do just that, up to $5000 of Kickstart money to help them:

- ✓ Get on their way to developing their first prototype, whether it be a product, technology solution or a service
- ✓ Or help get the product manufactured
- ✓ Or maybe get an app built
- ✓ Or help reach customers
- ✓ Or help pay for legals

Students have three years to make the most of the kickstart funds they are granted and see where that dream goes!

Others are small, but still improve the lives of those around us. That is OK too! They need a Quickstart as opposed to a full kickstart! These quickstart ideas just need a little money to get them off the ground, $500, $1000. Something students have been thinking about for a while! And yes, it could lead to big things. Check out some Quickstart ideas which may help provide inspiration about projects people have put into action with small amounts of money and how to make that happen.

St Paul's new Kickstart Loan process allows students to choose the amount of money they believe they need for their idea/business, how they will use it, and what they will use it on.

Dr Renae Jones, Director of our CIE says "this is an amazing opportunity for students to create and to act. To see their own idea become something is a really special feeling. Students don't have to act alone, getting their friends and family involved will make it just that little bit more exciting and manageable"

Don't let the application form put you off. If students don't yet have their business with an ABN and TFN, that is ok, if they are successful, the CIE will assist them in ensuring everything is in place.

Applications due 5pm, Monday 8 October, 2018. See www.thinkCIE.com.au for application details.

Please encourage students to contact Dr Renae Jones (r.jones@stpauls.qld.edu.au) who will assist them in completing their applications by appointment on Monday 24/9 and Friday 5/10 in person at St Paul's or via email over the holidays.

SPORT

SPORT SNIPPETS

The 2018 sporting season has come to a conclusion and it has been one full of trials and triumphs. Has it been the most successful year for St Paul's on the sporting field? No, it hasn't. Has it been one where we can still be proud of our performances? Undeniably, yes. However, I want to ask this question: can you undeniably say that you have given your all, not missed a training session, not argued with an umpire's call, not questioned a coach's decision and supported your teammates even when mistakes were made? There is no doubt that many of you have, but I challenge us as a St Paul's community to rise up and make each other accountable to all model this behaviour. Raise our expectations, raise our standards, when we are faced with challenges we embrace them, and not run away from them. Term 3 Sport has seen some examples of this in action. Our SPS Red Volleyball team, although not part of the regular TAS competition, embraced this challenge and welcomed the opportunity to be part of St Paul's Sport regardless of what team they were part of. These ladies came away with a much deserved premiership.

In the TAS competition, Champion Schools for each respective sport are awarded each term based upon the final placings of each TAS team. Despite some outstanding performances, we unfortunately were not successful in winning a premiership as a School. However, the consistency of achievements and the pride in each team's performance saw St Paul's take out the overall champion Volleyball School for 2018. Rather than one outstanding team winning a premiership, we had six teams that contributed to the overall success of our School.

Sport is all about facing challenges and overcoming difficulty. Two years ago our First XI Football team failed to win a game. In 2018 they did not lose a game. Undefeated First Football Premiers; only the second time in 17 years that JPC have not won the trophy and over 20 years since St Paul's last were premiers. Without self-belief, desire and commitment, their success would not have been possible. It was never going to be easy, winning rarely ever is, but the boys had an opportunity to embrace this challenge, to embrace the chance to be part of history and they were part of a moment that epitomises St Paul's sport. Congratulations gentlemen. You've shown pride in your performance, pride in your school in return we are so very proud of your achievement.

As the 2018 sporting calendar draws to an end, we look forward to the opportunities and possibilities that 2019 holds. Let the highlights we saw in 2018 become a norm and let the successes of individual teams become the benchmark for all teams. Premierships are not always achievable, but pride, determination and effort are. I look towards our 2019 sporting year and envision it to be one where expectations, standards and commitment are all raised and where we can collectively be proud of our achievements, as individuals and as a community, both on and off the field.

COMBINED CONCERT: CONCERT BAND/WIND ENSEMBLE AND ST MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Students from St Michael's College, Caboolture visited us on Wednesday to make some music with our Concert Band. As you can see from the photos they formed an enormous ensemble! After Concert Band's performance our Wind Ensemble introduced our guests, as well as St Paul's Year 3 students, to the instruments from the wind, brass and percussion instrument families. It's always wonderful for our Year 3s to hear our premier wind band perform as they will have an opportunity to be involved in the St Paul's band program when they are invited join Year 4 Band next year.

Thanks to our Concert Band and Wind Ensemble members for a very entertaining performance, and for being such great role models for our younger students.

PROCEEDS FROM BOOK WEEK PARADE

Our 2018 Book Week Parade was a marvellous event! It united the whole School in a wonderful show of support for the wonders of reading and the treasure that they provide for us all.

For a few years now, proceeds from the day have been donated to the Indigenous Literacy Foundation. This year, students were asked to make a donation which would go towards a local indigenous reading project which forms part of St Paul's Service Learning Program: the Bald Hills Reading Program. Almost $500 was raised from the event, and this has been used to purchase a total of 31 picture, early reader and younger reader titles to be used as part of the program to support the indigenous students at Bald Hills.

The books will be catalogued and kept as part of a special Turrwan Circle collection within the Bald Hill SS Library. Some of our donations will also be used by Bald Hills SS students in a local reading connection with the Bald Hills C & K.

What a fabulous example of the way that the treasure of reading is being spread within our local community.
