- Compete by the competition conditions and rules.
- Never argue with the Judge's, Referee's or Umpire's decision.
- Control your temper – no criticism by word or gesture.
- Work equally hard for yourself and your team – your team's performance will benefit and so will your own.
- Be a good sport. Encourage and support your own team members.
- Show respect for yourself, your team mates, officials, your opponents and their skills.
- Behave in a manner that respects the rights of others
- Smoking, drinking of alcoholic beverages, use of any illegal substances and substance abuse is strictly forbidden.
- Wear the official team uniform at all times, as directed by team officials.
- Check-in and check-out with team officials each day.
- Stay in the designated team area and support other team members during times when you are not competing.
- Follow all directions of team officials.

Consequences for breaches of this code by students

Team Officials may deal immediately with any breaches of this code by imposing appropriate consequences, including not playing remaining fixtures, notification of parents, and being sent home at your parents' expense. MNSS/ QSS is responsible for imposing any longer term consequences to your future participation in MNSS/ QSS events. Students may be notified orally or in writing of a temporary ban from participating or attending MNSS/ QSS fixtures until formal processes are conducted by MNSS/ QSS to determine complaints under this Code. Students will be afforded natural justice in respect of breaches of this code and for any discipline under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (EGPA). MNSS/ QSS may provide a report to your school about your conduct, and as a school representative you may be subject to discipline in accordance with the EGPA.

Expectations of Parents and Spectators: Parents Code of Conduct

Expectations of Parents and Spectators: Spectators' Code of Conduct

- Demonstrate appropriate social behaviour at MNSS/ QSS events.
- Remember children play for enjoyment; please don't let your behaviour detract from their enjoyment.
- Let game officials conduct events without interference.
- Support skilled performances and team play with generous applause.
- Demonstrate respect for opposing players and their supporters.
- Support our policy of a smoke and alcohol free environment

Consequences for breaches of this code by parents / spectators

Team Officials and Convenors may deal immediately with any breaches of this Code by warning offenders about their conduct, asking offenders to leave venues, and calling police to intervene where necessary. MNSS and/ or QSS is responsible for imposing any longer term consequences such as written warnings, or barring attendance at future events for a period or indefinitely. Parents and spectators may be notified orally or in writing of a temporary ban from attending MNSS/ QSS fixtures until formal processes are conducted by MNSS/ QSS to determine complaints under this Code. Parents and spectators will be afforded natural justice in respect of breaches of this code. Parents and spectators should note that it is an offence to insult (meaning "to treat insolently or with contemptuous rudeness, to abuse") an officer of a state educational institution in the presence or hearing of students – s.333(2)(b) Wilful Disturbance, of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (EGPA). Breaches of this section of the EGPA may result in a complaint being made to the Queensland Police Service.
