

FROM THE HEADMASTER

SCHOOL REPORTS

I hope that you found your child/ren's reports informative. In my experience, when reading the report some people will go straight to the grade while others will focus more closely on the comments.

To attain the best picture of your child's progress, it is important to gather information from a variety of sources: their grades, the comments, an interview with the teacher, and a reflection on the part of the student as to how they think they are going. It is important to remember that no-one's value is defined purely by a mark, there is much more to the holistic education of a young person than a grade.

What I really encourage young people to do is to reflect on their learning and the feedback they are given. Do they agree with the comments? Was the mark fair? It is often helpful to speak with the teacher to gain more specific feedback and to ask how they can improve further.

Finally, everyone should be setting goals. I believe that everyone is capable of far more than they may think. We do not have a fixed intelligence or ability; we can each grow and improve. Setting short-term and long-term goals helps to stretch our abilities and leads to growth; particularly if we listen carefully to the feedback and accept the support we are given.

If you took the opportunity to meet with your child/ren's teachers on Monday, I hope that it was helpful for you. For those parents who have a child in Years 7-12, I appreciate that the time was very limited, but it is difficult to imagine how else we can organise those opportunities. Some teachers had up to 55 interviews.

We often do not appreciate the load of a teacher – it is a huge job. Actually, it is not a job – it is a vocation. Teachers become teachers because they want to make a difference to the lives of others. At St Paul's School, we are incredibly blessed to have a wonderful team of committed teachers and a hard-working support staff behind them. As the students set new goals for the coming semester, I would like to take an opportunity to acknowledge the hard work and commitment of all of our staff – thank you.

Welcome back to Term 3!! It was great to see all the children return: some taller, some without teeth and some clearly had holidays where there was lots of sun!

The Parent/Teacher Interviews had a fabulous attendance on Monday and were a good time to re-set goals for the second semester. If you were unable to attend these interviews and would still like to, please make a time directly with the teacher.

BOOK WEEK

We will be celebrating Book Week in the Junior School Library this term. This year's theme is

'READING IS MY SECRET POWER!'

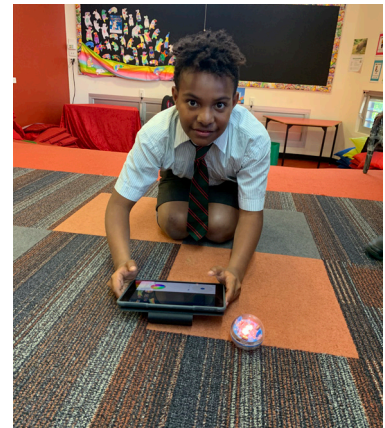

We are busily reading all the books that have been shortlisted to win the Children's Book Council awards. The awards will be announced in August. The students are listening to great stories and participating in exciting, creative and thoughtful activities to celebrate the work of all the talented authors and illustrators.

Book Week will be held from 17-23 August. There will be a range of activities to celebrate, including a character parade, literature quizzes and coloring in. More information will be available as we get closer.

This term we will also be exploring some exciting technology. Students will have the opportunity to participate in robot coding activities and use the Spheros we have borrowed from CSER.

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

SURPRISE VISITS BY INTERNATIONAL FAMILIES AND PAST STUDENTS

St Paul's International School has few opportunities to meet the families of our students. Parents cannot easily attend parent-teacher interviews or attend events held at school. It is always a pleasure to meet our overseas parents and put faces to the names we correspond with by usually only by email. It is lovely when we get to catch up with our past students who often drop in. Here are some recent visitors to St Paul's International School.

Hong Chun (Andrew) KWOK (2014) dropped in with his mother, Lisa KWOK. They were on their way to settle Andrew in to his university accommodation before he started his Master of Architecture degree at UQ earlier this year. Seen here with his SPIS teachers, Terese Reese, Kathleen Power and Sofie Arnold.

Ho Yin (Jeffrey) KWOK (current Yr 12) was pleased to have his younger brother Ho Man (Thomas) KWOK begin his Vacation Program at SPIS. Ms Eiling KWOK, the boys' aunt, accompanied Thomas from Hong Kong.

MUSIC

TRIVIA NIGHT - TONIGHT!

TONIGHT, our Music Supporters group is hosting a Trivia Night in the Walker Centre beginning at 7pm. All money raised by the MSG goes towards the purchase of new instruments (such as the two new upright pianos that we received earlier in the year!) and funding of other projects (musicals, tours, etc.) for music students, so it would be great to see the Music community come out to support this event. Even though it is an MSG event, the questions are all-rounder questions rather than just music trivia and questions will be aimed at both adults and secondary school students so everyone is in with a shot! Both soft drinks and adult beverages will be available for purchase and guests are encouraged to bring some nibbles to enjoy on the night. The theme is Disco Fever and you're more than welcome to dress up in your finest disco attire (although that's not compulsory).

It's not too late to take part – just rock up tonight and we'll find you some new friends so be on a team with. We hope to see many of you there!

SOLO COMPETITION

It's over! We promise that it's not just a 'thing' that music teachers say when we say this... but everyone who was at the final of our 2019 Solo Competition was blown away by the increasingly high standard of our musicians from both sections. We were so proud of our students and the hard work they've put into practising and rehearsing pieces of such a high standard. We honestly couldn't pick the first, second and third places this year and we're grateful to our adjudicator, Mr Jamie Kennedy, for making the difficult decisions and awarding prizes to the following students:

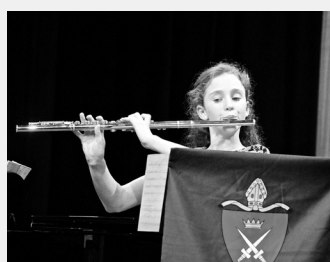

YEARS 7-9

1st - Gordon Tang (Year 7, violin)
2nd - Layla Heard (Year 7, flute)
3rd - Katelyn Uebel (Year 8, vocal)

YEARS 10-12

1st - Callum Heard (Year 10, trumpet)
2nd - Tim Wright (Year 12, drums)
3rd - Zack Keleher (Year 12, piano)

Congratulations to all of our students for a wonderful evening, and a huge thank you to; Miss Davidson and Mrs Stevenson for their hard work and support behind the scenes, Mr Cotgreave for all the tech support, our Music Captains for being excellent MCs, our amazing Music Tutors for preparing the musicians for their performances, Miss Chou and Mrs Jacoby for accompanying the soloists and our very dedicated team from the Music Supporters' Group for providing snacks and drinks for sale on the night. It certainly takes a village, and this community is a particularly special one to be part of.

MUSIC

SPS FEST

Not long now until our annual SPS Fest! Our Music students will be running all kinds of excellent activities during lunchtimes for students of all ages to take part in, but the biggest events of the week are two night time performances that you won't want to miss.

The first is our SPS Fest Songwriters' Showcase on Tuesday August 13 at 6.30pm in the Music Centre. This is open for any musicians who have original songs to perform but will also feature some of our Year 10 students who have been involved in I Heart Songwriting Club for the past couple of months. In this time, each student has written an impressive 10 new songs, and they'll each perform a couple of these at our showcase.

Secondly, our musicians will battle it out at our SPS Fest Band and Solo/Duo Competition on Friday August 16 from 3.30-7pm in the Walker Centre. The members of the winning band for the last couple years, Full Distortion, graduated in 2018 so the top prize is well and truly up for grabs! The Music Supporters' Group will also have food and drink available for purchase.

To be involved in any of our SPS Fest activities, please contact Mrs Green.

TEACHER RECOGNISED WITH HISTORY AWARD

Congratulations to St Paul's teacher, Mrs Kerry Daud!

At the State History Conference over the holidays, Mrs Daud was awarded the Queensland History Teachers' Association's Outstanding History Teacher Award.

The award recognised Kerry's excellent conference presentations over the last number of years. The Association's President, Pip McDonald, commented:

"In addition, your leadership of history education within your school community through innovative whole-school programs such as the Anzac poppy project are to be commended."

This a very significant achievement, and we are grateful for her contributions to the School.

Wellbeing a Top Priority at St Paul's

St Paul's School, QLD

Rather than following trends of other schools and educational programs, St Paul's is a pioneer which creates its own frameworks aimed at providing a truly holistic education, which focuses on who each child can become, rather than a narrow focus on standardised knowledge and skills.

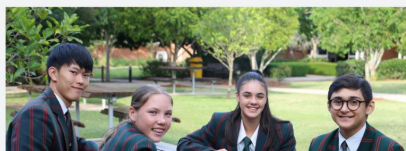

Recently this approach to student wellbeing was recognised in a national forum. The School was named as a finalist in the category of 'Best Student Wellbeing Program' in the National Education Awards. Commenting on the award nomination, Executive Director of Faith and Community, Mr Nigel Grant, said "It is very exciting to see our holistic, integrated approach to student wellbeing acknowledged in this way. We are committed to seeing each child flourish, and that involves the formation of their character as well as the development of their mind and body".

This is achieved through the School's unique student wellbeing program called Ways of Being. This program has five components:

1. Character and virtues
2. Values and ethics
3. Physical health and wellbeing
4. Mental health and wellbeing
5. Spiritual formation

At the heart of Ways of Being is the relationship between each child and their teachers. In the primary school, the classroom teacher is responsible for integrating Ways of Being into the overall learning program. However, in the secondary school it is more complex, with a House-based pastoral care system of vertical tutor groups complementing the academic program.

Also central to Ways of Being is the St Paul's Character Framework, comprising ten virtues which all members of the community are encouraged to demonstrate. Complementing this is the Choices and Consequences Framework, which guides students in assessing their coherence between their behaviour and their beliefs.

ST PAUL'S FEATURED IN ASA MAGAZINE

St Paul's School has been profiled in the latest edition of Anglican Schools Australia magazine. The magazine focuses on our unique students wellbeing program: Ways of Being.

Ways of Being is a holistic, integrated approach to student wellbeing which focuses on building better relationships between students and their teachers, and enabling every student to flourish.

"Education Transformation" What does it mean for parents?

St Paul's School is striving to provide the best possible education for each child so that they can flourish in the world when they graduate.

The best outcomes for a student are attained when the parents and school engage in an educational partnership, together providing the best support and education for that child.

As a parent, where do I start....?

- How will technology impact my child's learning?
- What are the evolving priorities for education and technology?
- Why the urgency now?
- How does St Paul's support families in a fast changing world?

We are sure you have questions. We have answers. If you are interested in exploring the above, bring you questions along. We look forward to meeting you!
